

SCHOLARSHIP WRITING TIPS

START SEARCHING NOW

Don't miss out because you left it too late!

- Make a shortlist of potential scholarships & their due dates

THINK OUTSIDE THE BOX

- What are you achieving outside of your studies that may merit recognition?
- What are your goals/aspirations?
- What is your drive/motivation? eg. Female seeking a career in a male-dominated field, personal reasons for choosing career path

YOU ARE UNIQUE

How do YOU meet the criteria. Now is not the time to be humble & shy! Sometimes starting off by writing in 3rd person helps.

RESEARCH THE SCHOLARSHIP

Often they are funded by a donor (business/ person) take the time to look it up & tie in some information

MORE THAN ACADEMIC

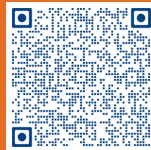

Include extra-curricular activities like sport, music, drama, leadership, work experience, home life

USE EXAMPLES

To show your strengths/abilities (rather than tell or list)

ASK OTHERS

Sometimes its hard to remember all the things you've done, chat with your friends, family, teachers to get some inspiration.
