

HIRING NOW

TAX ACCOUNTANT

Our continued growth means that we currently have an opportunity available for a Full Time Tax Accountant to join our team here at Roma Taxation Services. The ideal candidate would be an individual who loves accounting and enjoys working with clients to help clients achieve their business goals.

Offering flexible hours with excellent work-life balance would suit a return-to-work individual.

Job Tasks and Responsibilities

Your job tasks and responsibilities include:

- tax returns (company, trusts, partnerships, sole traders, individuals),
- tax & entity advisory,
- Xero (analysis/bookkeeping),
- conducting research to assist in advising clients and
- being a team player who enjoys team meetings/training/discussions.

Skills and Experience

The successful candidate will have:

- minimum 1 years' experience in an Australian public practice,
- experience with Xero,
- knowledge of tax rules/regulations,
- experience in preparing financial statements,
- impeccable communication skills and
- be autonomous, problem solver and a team player.
- Self-motivated with exceptional problem-solving skills
- High level of attention to detail ensuring quality and accuracy of all tasks

The candidate should be self-motivated, enthusiastic and honest. Strong communication skills, both written and verbal is imperative.